Dear Ms. Sederquest:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act Request (EPA-HQ-2017-006173) dated April 4, 2018, requesting a list and details of all Tribal Brownfields as of January 2014-present.

The EPA does not maintain a list of brownfield sites located on tribal land and therefore cannot fulfill this request. The following is an internet link to an EPA website that may assist your search for information: http://www2.epa.gov/sites/production/files/2015-10/documents/brownfields_tribal_report_2014_508_12-29-14_final_web.pdf. The 2014 Tribal Report publication lists all grantees with active CERCLA 128(a) funding tribal response programs. These programs may or may not have publically available information concerning their listing of cleanup sites within their jurisdiction. Also, if you are interested in brownfields sites funded by the Brownfields Program located on Indian Land, you should visit the Cleanups in My Community page at www.epa.gov/cimc. This tool provides specific site information on brownfields assessments and cleanups, including sites addressed on tribal lands.

This letter concludes our response to your request. You may appeal this response by email at hq.foia@epa.gov, or by mail to the National Freedom of Information Office, U.S. EPA, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. (2822T), Washington, DC 20460. Only items mailed through the United States Postal Service may be delivered to 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue. If you are submitting your appeal by hand delivery, courier service, or overnight delivery, you must address your correspondence to 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room 6416J, Washington, DC 20001. Your appeal must be in writing, and it must be received no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. The Agency will not consider appeals received after the 90-calendar-day limit. Appeals received after 5:00 pm EST will be considered received the next business day. The appeal letter should include the FOIA tracking number listed above. For quickest possible handling, the subject line of your email, the appeal letter, and its envelope, if applicable, should be marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Additionally, you may seek dispute resolution services from EPA's FOIA Public Liaison at hq.foia@epa.gov or (202) 566-1667, or from the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways: by mail, Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, Room 2510, 8610 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740-6001; email, ogis@nara.gov; telephone, (202) 741-5770 or (877) 684-6448; or fax, (202) 741-5769.

The cost of providing this information fell below the billable threshold, so you will not receive a bill requesting payment for this request. If you have any questions, please contact Rachel Lentz at lentz.rachel@epa.gov or 202-566-2745.

Sincerely,
